

A Dialogue in the Island Princess Sung by M^r Leveridge & M^{rs} Lindsey Set by M^r Clark.

He

Tis Sultry weather pretty Maid, tis Sultry weather pretty Maid, come lets retire, come come lets retire to yonder Shade, come, come, come lets retire to yonder, to yonder Shade. Pray why so shy, why thus d'you stand, sure tis no crime to touch your hand, oh let me take a civill kys. What harm is there, what harm is there, harm is there in doing this, what harm, what harm, what harm, what harm, what harm is there in doing this. Fly fy fy why d'you cover thus your She

Breast One favour more, one one favour more & then your Blest; Oh, pray Sir, nay, nay Sir, oh fy Sir, oh why Sir, why d'you pull me thus to you Oh, what shall I, what shall I, what shall I say, when a Gentleman's Suiter, tis hard to say nay, when a Gentleman's Suiter, tis hard hard to hard to say nay, I'm en out of Breath, oh, dear why d'you do, good luck is it thus if you Gentlefolks woo, is it thus, thus if you Gentlefolks woo:
 Chorus

Good Sir doe not hold me, good Sir, good Sir, good Sir do not hold me, Good Lass do not Fly, good Lass do not What good can I do you, what good what good can I do you Fly, come yonder we'l try, come yonder we'l try, come yonder, come

I vow I can't find in my heart to de-ny, I vow I can't yonder, come yonder, come yonder, come yonder weel try, come yonder, come find in my Heart to deny, I vow I can't find in my Heart to de ny:

yonder, come yonder weel try, come yonder, come yonder, come yonder weel try:

Oh! come to the Groue, oh I dare not I Swear, I'm a fraid of the Serpents that

Sting Women there, one Stung my poor Sister, and made her so Swell, tis now almost

Nine Months, and She's not yet well; To Secure you from harm, I'll give thee a

Charm, securd by the Ring, Women venture the Sting, oh! what shall I give you for such a fine thing

I'll give you another, you'll give me another, a nother fine

Come, come, come you'll give me another fine thing, you'll give me another, I'll give you another fine thing, I'll give you another, you'll give me another, a nother fine thing.

thing you'll give me a nother I'll give you another fine thing.
